

LIFELINE ACCIDENTAL COUNSELLOR TRAINING

Two Day Program in Basic Counselling Skills for workers in the Community Sector Wednesday 6th and Thursday 7th
June 2007

10am – 5pm COST: $150

This program has been developed for people who find themselves in situations where counselling or empathetic communication is required. The program has been developed to provide participants with a range of skills to work effectively with clients who are distressed, agitated or in crisis. It is ideally suited to community workers, teachers, people in the human services professions and anyone that finds themselves in the situation of dealing with crisis. Topics include communication, Reflective listening, counselling skills, boundary setting, dealing with crisis and de-briefing. The course draws from Lifeline's 35 years of experience of providing counselling training.

If you are interested in attending this training please complete a registration form and return it to Lifeline Canberra.
